

TAYLOR ASHE
ANTIVENOM FOUNDATION

SNAKE AWARENESS TRAINING

COURSE OUTLINE - DAY 1

Introduction

- A brief look at THE TAYLOR ASHE ANTIVENOM FOUNDATION and what we do.
- Emergency Contacts.
- Further learning - resources

Snakes

- Different families of snakes.
- Snake behaviour.
- Different fang types.
- Different venoms and how they work.
- Snake identification.
- Snake Myths

Snakes & Snakebite In Kenya

- What snakebite looks like in Kenya.
- What snakes account for those bites

Common Snakes In Your Area

- How to identify the venomous snakes and some of the common harmless ones.

COURSE OUTLINE - DAY 2

Recap

- A quick look back at yesterday's learning

Snakebite First Aid

- A look at what to do immediately following a snakebite.

Dangerous Scorpions

- Identification of dangerous scorpions
- How to deal with bites and stings.

Snakebite Prevention Video

- Audiovisual

Practical Demonstration

- A demonstration on safe "hands-off" removal of venomous snakes.
- Some of the learners will have an opportunity to perform the technique.

Q & A

"Saving Snakes & Saving Lives"

We offer a one and a half day Snake Awareness Training Course aimed at educating people about snakes and their benefits.

The course covers basic first aid, as well as our "hands-off" approach to moving venomous snakes.

COURSE DETAILS

Cost: $100 (+VAT) per person

Excludes: transport, accommodation and food

For group bookings please contact us directly for a quote.

Requirments:

- A room to facilitate the course
- A projector and TV that can be connected via HDMI cable.

FOR MORE INFO PLEASE CONTACT:

Ali: +254720441487

Kyle: +254723386558

info@taaf-eastafricanreptiles.org

